About this trade data report

This trade data report provides insights into the trade flows between a number of Southern African AGOA beneficiary countries and the United States.

The data is based on official U.S. import statistics. A general overview is provided with aggregate two-way trade between the Southern African country and the U.S. (imports, exports, balance of trade), in tabular and chart format. A second chart categorizes U.S. imports with each country by import category (AGOA, no preferences claimed, etc.).

For each country, trade data by sector is shown for the past three years (2019-2021), along with 2022 data for the first quarter. This includes imports and exports, and further distinguishes U.S. imports by aggregate and by share of AGOA/GSP preference.

Disaggregated data tables for each country show U.S. imports by HTS 4-digit classification, in descending order by value, irrespective of a product's preference status. This provides greater insight into the leading tariff lines being imported into the U.S. from the country concerned. The final data table shows only products that entered the U.S. duty-free under AGOA/GSP preference, for each country, and indicates which tariff lines (at the HTS 8-digit level) are benefiting from these trade preferences.

Angola

Dataset	Description
1	Two-way trade in goods between Angola and the United States: exports, imports, balance of trade (Chart and Table)
2	Angola's exports to the United States by program
3	Angola's trade with the United States by sector, exports disaggregated by AGOA / non-AGO
4	Angola's leading exports to the United States by product HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)
5	Angola's leading exports to the United States by product under AGOA HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)

Summary:

Angola has been a net exporter to the United States during the review period (2000-2021), with combined two-way trade increasing from $3,568m in 2020 to $19,269m in 2007, before declining to $1,459m in 2021.

During 2021, the value of U.S. exports more than doubled (+113%) over the previous year, while imports declined by 5%.

While Angola has been a significant exporter under AGOA preference, most of this trade has been concentrated in the energy sector. Petroleum oils (mostly crude) account for the bulk of Angola's exports to the U.S., followed by diamonds.

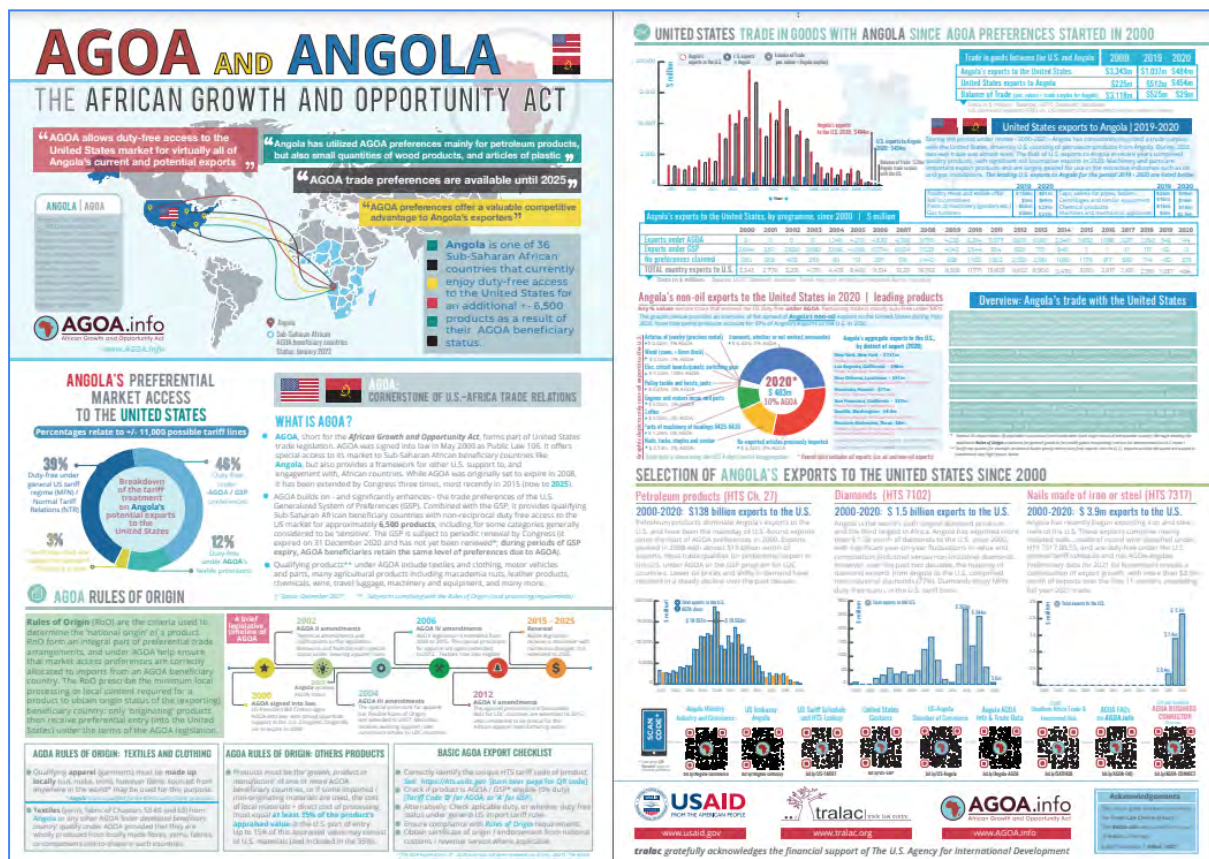

Other smaller product categories have included certain steel products, sulfur, acrylic hydrocarbons, headgear and coffee. AGOA preferences are only being claimed on petroleum products.

Summary:

Eswatini (formerly Swaziland) has recorded significant trade with the United States, and was a net exporter between 2000 and 2014, before exports declined drastically following the country's suspension as a beneficiary of AGOA preferences. Eswatini has subsequently regained AGOA status and has seen U.S.-bound exports increase gradually. Imports from the U.S. have often exceeded exports since then, and the country has recorded trade deficits with the U.S. since 2015.

In 2004 and again in 2005, the value of Eswatini's U.S. exports were $199m, driven by strong apparel exports on the back of AGOA's favorable rules of origin provisions which allowed the use of third country fabrics, combined with the global trade regime around textiles and apparel trade, which at that time still placed heavy restrictions on U.S. imports from China in the context of the WTO Multifiber Agreement (MFA) / Agreement on Textiles and Clothing (ATC). Despite U.S. exports declining subsequently, they remained resilient until the country's AGOA suspension.

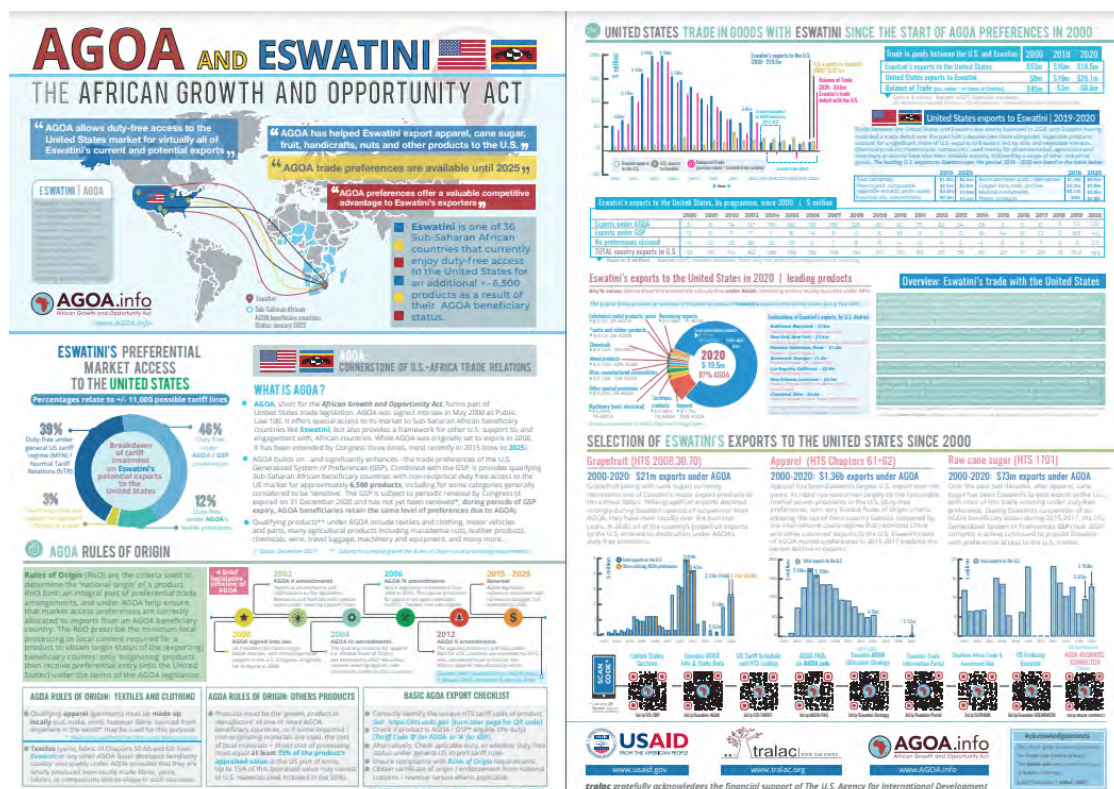

Today, Eswatini's main exports to the U.S. comprise sugar, fruit (mainly grapefruit) and textile goods (apparel). Most trade in these categories enters the U.S. under AGOA preference.

Malawi

Dataset	Description
1	Two-way trade in goods between Malawi and the United States: exports, imports, balance of trade (Chart and Table)
2	Malawi's exports to the United States by program
3	Malawi's trade with the United States by sector, exports disaggregated by AGOA / non-AGO
4	Malawi's leading exports to the United States by product HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)
5	Malawi's leading exports to the United States by product under AGOA HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)

Summary:

Malawi has consistently enjoyed a trade surplus with the United States during the review period, during which time exports have remained broadly constant, mostly between $50m and $75m per annum.

The largest export category from Malawi to the U.S. comprises agricultural products: mainly tobacco, tea, nuts (mainly macadamia) and sugar, with a combined value in 2021 of $46m. Two-thirds of these exports qualified for AGOA preferences.

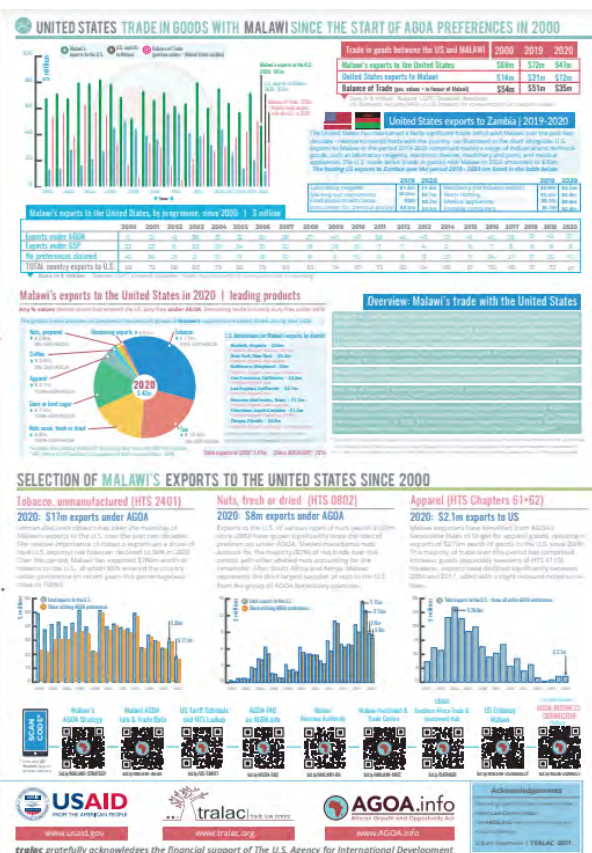

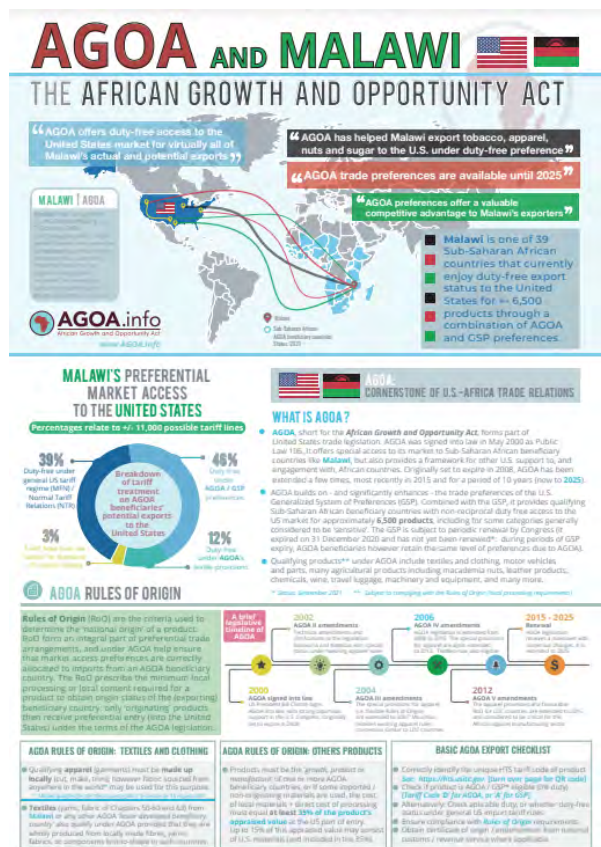

Previously, Malawi also exported sizable volumes of apparel to the U.S., although in recent years, these exports have declined significantly, with only small quantities of knitwear being exported to the U.S. in recent years (under AGOA preference).

Summary:

Mozambique has been mostly a net importer of goods from the United States, particularly over the period 2007 - 2015. Since 2013, Mozambique's U.S.-bound exports have increased steadily, resulting in somewhat more balanced two-way trade and only small trade deficits.

Exports to the U.S. comprise mainly mineral products, lead by precious stones (not diamonds) and titanium ores. Other exports include graphite, and agricultural goods such as sugar, nuts, tobacco, fish, and fruit.

Mozambique also exports goods under AGOA preference. In 2021, around $8m worth of goods were able to claim AGOA status, of $160m in total exports. The value of duty-free AGOA / GSP exports has remained relatively constant over the past five years, with most other goods entering the U.S. duty-free on a MFN basis.

AGOA AND MOZAMBIQUE

THE AFRICAN GROWTH AND OPPORTUNITY ACT

“AGOA allows duty-free access to the United States market for virtually all of Mozambique's current and potential exports”

“AGOA has helped Mozambique export goods such as cane sugar, nuts, apparel and aluminum wire to the U.S.”

“AGOA trade preferences are available until 2025”

“AGOA preferences offer a valuable competitive advantage to Mozambique's exporters”

Mozambique is one of 36 Sub-Saharan African countries that currently enjoy duty-free access to the United States for an additional ~6,500 products as a result of their AGOA beneficiary status.

MOZAMBIQUE'S PREFERENTIAL MARKET ACCESS TO THE UNITED STATES
Percentages relate to ~7,110 possible tariff lines

39% Duty-free under AGOA (vs. 3% under MFN)
46% Duty-free under AGOA (vs. 12% under MFN)

WHAT IS AGOA?
AGOA, short for the African Growth and Opportunity Act, is a United States trade legislation. AGOA was signed into law in May 2000 as Public Law 106-113, it offers special access to its market to Sub-Saharan African beneficiary countries. The Mozambique law also provides a framework for other U.S. support, aid, and engagement with African countries. While AGOA was originally set to expire in 2008, it has been extended by Congress three times, most recently in 2015 (now to 2025). AGOA builds on - and significantly enhances - the trade preferences of the U.S. Generalized System of Preferences (GSP). Combined with the GSP, it provides qualifying Sub-Saharan African beneficiary countries with non-reciprocal duty-free access to the U.S. market for approximately 6,500 products, including for some categories generally considered to be sensitive. The GSP is subject to periodic renewal by Congress. It expired on 31 December 2020 and has not yet been renewed. During periods of GSP expiry, AGOA beneficiaries retain the same level of preferences due to AGOA.

Qualifying products** under AGOA include textiles and clothing, motor vehicles and parts, many agricultural products including macadamia nuts, leather products, chemicals, wine, travel luggage, machinery and equipment, and many more.

AGOA RULES OF ORIGIN
Rules of Origin (ROO) are the criteria used to determine the "national origin" of a product. ROO form an integral part of preferential trade arrangements, and under AGOA help ensure that market access preferences are correctly allocated to imports from an AGOA beneficiary country. The ROO guarantee this minimum level processing in the beneficiary country required for a product to obtain origin status of the beneficiary country. Only originating products that receive preferential entry under the United States law are eligible for AGOA.

AGOA RULES OF ORIGIN: TEXTILES AND CLOTHING
Qualifying apparel (garments) must be made up of fabric that is wholly produced from AGOA beneficiary countries. Textiles (fabrics) must be made up of fibers that are wholly produced from AGOA beneficiary countries. Textiles (fabrics) must be made up of fibers that are wholly produced from AGOA beneficiary countries.

AGOA RULES OF ORIGIN: OTHERS PRODUCTS
Products must be the goods produced or manufactured in the beneficiary country. Beneficiary countries may, at their own discretion, use non-preferential materials in the production of their goods. The cost of non-preferential materials used in the production of a good must not exceed 35% of the value of the good.

BASIC AGOA EXPORT CHECKLIST
1. Identify the product's HTS code (code of product) and determine if it is eligible for AGOA. 2. Check if the product is on the list of AGOA-eligible products. 3. Determine if the product is on the list of AGOA-eligible products. 4. Determine if the product is on the list of AGOA-eligible products.

TRADE REPORT

Namibia

Dataset	Description
1	Two-way trade in goods between Namibia and the United States: exports, imports, balance of trade (Chart and Table)
2	Namibia's exports to the United States by program
3	Namibia's trade with the United States by sector, exports disaggregated by AGOA / non-AGO
4	Namibia's leading exports to the United States by product HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)
5	Namibia's leading exports to the United States by product under AGOA HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)

With the exception of 2011 and the period 2002-2007, when Namibia successfully exported apparel to the U.S. using its favorable Rules of Origin provisions, Namibia's exports under AGOA have for the most part been modest relative to overall exports. Since 2018, AGOA exports have seen some growth, and have since then predominantly consisted of building stone (granite) and marble.

In 2020, Namibia finally exported its first (and currently only) shipments of beef ('meat of bovine animals, frozen'), worth $2.7m, to the U.S., accounting for almost 90% of Namibia's agricultural product exports to the U.S. during that year.

TRADE REPORT

Zambia

Dataset	Description
1	Two-way trade in goods between Zambia and the United States: exports, imports, balance of trade (Chart and Table)
2	Zambia's exports to the United States by program
3	Zambia's trade with the United States by sector, exports disaggregated by AGOA / non-AGO
4	Zambia's leading exports to the United States by product HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)
5	Zambia's leading exports to the United States by product under AGOA HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)

Summary:

Zambia's two-way trade with the United States over the period under review has fluctuated significantly, but in recent years has seen two peaks: first in 2018, and again in 2021, where U.S.-bound exports exceeded $200m and $180m respectively.

Between 2006 and 2020 - with the notable exception of 2018, Zambia recorded a trade deficit in its goods trade with the U.S. In 2021, Zambia's U.S.-bound exports significantly exceeded U.S. imports. During that year, the country imported $85m worth of goods from the U.S., with exports valued at just over $180m.

Leading exports are refined copper and copper anodes, and precious and semi-precious stones, which have seen significant year-on-year fluctuations in the value of exports. Since the country's copper exports qualify for AGOA preferences, AGOA/GSP utilization rates are strongly tied to this. Overall, however, the value of Zambia's AGOA exports has been relatively low.

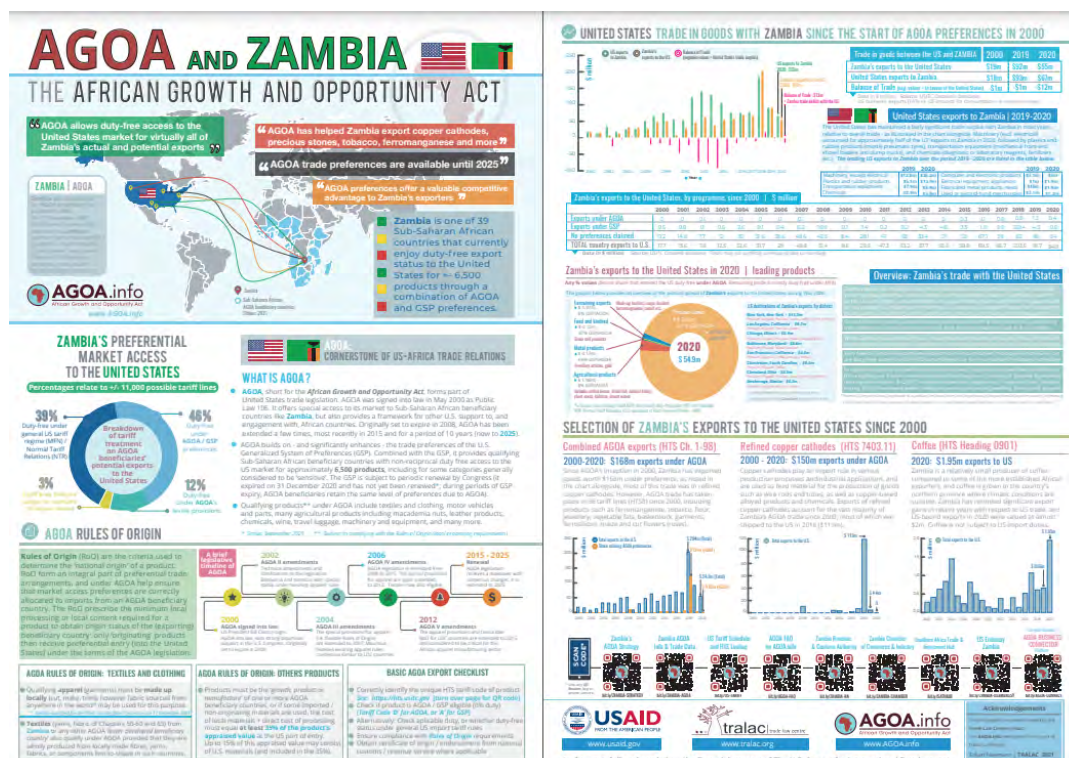

Coffee exports, which benefit from a duty-free import regime in the U.S. have seen strong growth recently, and are now one of the country's largest export products to the U.S. apart from natural resources. Ferroalloys, diamonds and honey are also important exports, with honey qualifying under AGOA.

TRADE REPORT

South Africa

Dataset	Description
1	Two-way trade in goods between South Africa and the United States: exports, imports, balance of trade (Chart and Table)
2	South Africa's exports to the United States by program
3	South Africa's trade with the United States by sector, exports disaggregated by AGOA / non-AGO
4	South Africa's leading exports to the United States by product HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)
5	South Africa's leading exports to the United States by product under AGOA HTS4 level - Top 25 in descending order by value (2021)

Summary:

South Africa is the U.S.' largest trade partner in Sub-Saharan Africa. Exports to the U.S. grew strongly during 2021 and reached their highest ever level at $15.5b, while imports from the U.S. were valued at $4.7b in that year. During the period under review, South Africa recorded a significant surplus in its trade with the U.S., having reached $10.7b in 2021, a 46% increase over the previous year.

The largest category of exports to the U.S. comprises minerals and metals, mostly platinum and diamonds. Each tariff line has seen year on year growth since 2020 of over 80%. Motor vehicles are South Africa's third-largest export category to the U.S., and the largest under AGOA preference. Various other resource-based goods also qualify for duty-free export under AGOA.

Agricultural products benefiting under AGOA are nuts - mainly macadamia nuts - and citrus (mainly oranges). South Africa, along with Kenya, together account for much of the total U.S. import market of macadamia nuts. South Africa is also a leading supplier of oranges to the U.S., along with mandarins. Wine also qualifies under AGOA, and over $30m worth of bottled wines has been imported from South Africa in each of the past three years.

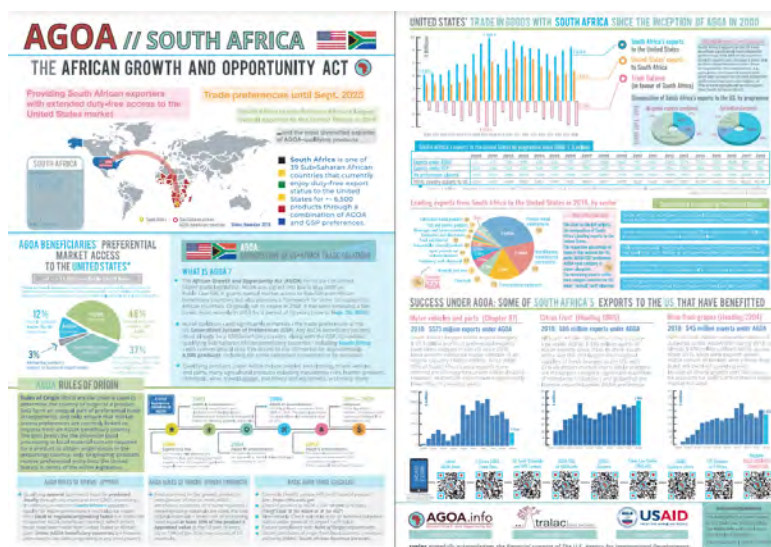

South Africa's overall utilization of AGOA/GSP preferences was 17% during 2021, with most of the remaining trade also entering the U.S. duty-free on a MFN basis. .
